WASHINGTON

The Memorial

“To erect and maintain in the City of Alexandria, Virginia, a suitable Memorial Temple to George Washington, the Mason; one which will express in durability and beauty the undying esteem of the Freemasons of the United States for him in whose memory it shall stand throughout the coming years.”

- Gazette de Leyde
 - "The example of these respectable citizens proves to what degree patriotism raises their hearts, and how difficult it will be to subjugate a people, in which the vast majority know how to sacrifice their families ties and their most valued personal interests, to save the patrie to danger."
 - Signe: "This rising generation taught ... to admire the great writers and the heroes of Greece and Rome, excited by an enthusiastic excess the interest with which they were inspired by the American Revolution."
